

Legacy of Nobility - The Medici Salon 1

2016-6-4 New Cosmos

The House of Medici was an Italian banking family, political dynasty and later royal house. The Medici produced three Popes , two regent queens of France, fostered and inspired the birth of the Renaissance.

The biggest accomplishments of the Medici were in the sponsorship of art and architecture. Great artists such as Michelangelo Buonarroti, Leonardo da Vinci and Raphael were patronized by the House of Medici.

In the salon of Medici gathered not only musicians, artists, but also scientists, poets and philosophers. They have created the early form of opera.
